

Custom Terminal Control Board

Custom Terminal Boards are custom boards to aid ease of installation on the field. They interface the Hardware units (for example the Data Acquisition & Control System) to the external environment (like sensors, solenoids) to enable seamless and direct connectivity. They also provide for additional functionality.